CATAWBA LANDS CONSERVANCY (CLC)

CLC is a land trust - a nonprofit, community based conservation organization that permanently conserves and manages local land for public benefit. We are dedicated to saving land and connecting lives to nature.

WHERE WE SERVE A six-county region - Catawba, Gaston, Iredell, Lincoln, Mecklenburg and Union - all within the Southern Piedmont of North Carolina

WHAT WE PROTECT Our region's natural landscapes, unique ecosystems and heritage; our conservation efforts focus on four areas: local farms, wildlife habitat, clean water and connections to nature. We protect 162 properties totaling 12,453 acres.

THE THREAD

CLC is the lead agency for the Carolina Thread Trail (The Thread). The Thread is a 15-county, two state initiative designed to foster and facilitate the creation and development of a regional network of trails, blueways and conservation corridors that will link more than 2.3 million citizens.

CLC works in partnership with Foundation For The Carolinas and many local partners on this initiative. Currently, 93 miles of The Thread are open to the public in North and South Carolina with 14 active corridors under development.
